Inter-planetary aspects

The following aspects between planets concern the possible relationships between two charts, especially the emotional and romantic relationship, but also aspects on social, intellectual, and spiritual levels.

The values next to the orbs in the chart above are part of a rating system. Keep in mind that these figures serve only as a possible guideline to reveal which aspects may be considered easy or challenging. Analysis of a relationship is, of course, very complex. While some aspects can be considered, on their own, difficult for most people, some will have an easier time with them, and the same is true of easy aspects. As well, all relationships will--and should-- have a mix of easy and challenging aspects.

When analyzing compatibility, always use your own logic and intuition to put these influences together. This is the case for anything you read in the report, on the site, on other sites, and in books. These are guidelines and possibilities only, and are not meant to pass judgment on a relationship. Read more about these combinations on Cafe Astrology (Synastry/Relationship Astrology category), on other astrology sites, and in astrology books.

151 Chelsea Trine Jp Moon - Mercury

Positive aspect: Ideal aspect for a couple, as they will have lots of interests and projects in common, and they will understand each other well. There is a mental rapport that sometimes borders on the telepathic.

-148 Chelsea Square Jp Venus - Jupiter

Challenging aspect: A life together that can be very challenging at times on an intellectual level, with possible intellectual misunderstandings, diametrically opposed tastes, and different ideas. This shouldn't be too difficult in an otherwise strong relationship, however, particularly if the people involved aim to learn from differences or "agree to disagree".

-118 Chelsea Opposition Jp Mercury - Venus

Challenging aspect: Their relationship can sometimes be agreeable, sometimes disturbed. They tend to like to share their ideas that are not always to the other's taste, so that they may have interminable discussions in order to convince each other of their mistakes, lack of judgement, or lack of taste. It's best to be aware of this bickering tendency to overcome it, as it can slowly eat away at a relationship.

109 Chelsea Sextile Jp Mercury - Mars

Positive aspect: They stimulate each other to be more creative and expressive. They learn a great deal from each other. They understand each other, like to discuss things with each other and undertake joint initiatives. Great intellectual understanding.

104 Chelsea Trine Jp Moon - Saturn

Positive aspect: They can lead their lives together, with the Moon often bringing fantasy to Saturn, who is sometimes too austere but whose other qualities (which the Moon does not possess) are appreciated. Two people whose difference in character is made to complement each other. This is a good aspect to have for long-term compatibility and living together.

-96 Chelsea Square Jp Sun - Lunar node

Challenging aspect: A great attraction for each other will make them try to live together, but life together can be difficult at times, as they often find they are working towards different goals.

-87 Chelsea Square Jp Moon - Uranus

Challenging aspect: It is likely that their relationship developed suddenly and impulsively, for their feelings for each other change quickly and unexpectedly. Their feelings blow hot and cold in this relationship, and consequently there is a tone of instability and inconstancy. OR, their feelings for each other may be quite constant, but circumstances are such that they are separated at key moments. It is possible that one, or both, of them will tire of the constant fluctuations. The Moon person, in particular, may find the situation challenging and draining emotionally as time goes on. There may be a lack of commitment, dedication, reliability, and stability to the relationship, causing the Moon person to doubt the viability of the relationship. On the other hand, the couple may find the changes exciting and stimulating. Be grateful that there are always surprises and novelty around the corner - at least they don't have to worry about getting stuck in a rut or becoming bored with their partner.

81 Chelsea Sextile Jp Venus - Saturn

Positive aspect: This union could be favorable and lasting, if Venus is really looking for a mature person to be with. There can be a certain level of self-consciousness together that is always present, no matter how long they are together. There is a lot of loyalty between them, and a feeling of responsibility for one another.

75 Chelsea Conjunction Jp Mars - Pluto

Positive aspect: Enormous physical passion. The sexual attraction is intense and insistent. They want to be around each other as much as possible. Their sexual relationship evolves with time, instead of dissolves.

71 Chelsea Opposition Jp Sun - Venus

Challenging aspect: The two persons are drawn towards each other, but the union can be unstable at times, largely because there will inevitably be division, probably through misunderstanding on romantic levels, which may frustrate the partner.

67 Chelsea Trine Jp Venus - Jupiter

Positive aspect: This union is likely to be completely successful. A couple that is happy to be alive, and to live together, with a pleasant family and home, total confidence in each other (and with reason), intellectual understanding, similar tastes. There is a strong desire to make each other happy. You enjoy each other's company immensely and you put each other in a happy mood. You make each other laugh and you feel very open, loose, and jovial around each other. Forgiveness and graciousness characterizes your partnership.

65 Chelsea Trine Jp Sun - Uranus

Positive aspect: The Sun person will be enriched by this relationship with Uranus, which will lead to the discovery of a new world, original and full of change. They will go well together, but the Uranus person may resist marriage, at least on a formal level. In some cases, the relationship works better when the bond is not formalized, simply for the sake of the Uranus person's sense of freedom.

-62 Chelsea Opposition Jp Mars - Saturn

Challenging aspect: It can be challenging for such a union to run smoothly, and if it progresses, it could easily become unbearable! Both parties must be committed to happiness in order for this to work. It is important not to frequently stop, thwart, or restrict one another.

62 Chelsea Trine Jp Jupiter - Neptune

Positive/Supportive aspect: A potential union. This is unlikely to be a defining factor in compatibility, so you need to look at the other aspects. This is a supportive aspect.

61 Chelsea Conjunction Jp Jupiter - Lunar node

Positive aspect: They are made for each other. They go well together, have intellectual understanding and confidence in each other, a harmonious couple.

60 Chelsea Sextile Jp Mercury - Pluto

Positive aspect: Favorable union of the minds. They speak to each other about things they never talk about to others.

53 Chelsea Sextile Jp Moon - Pluto

Positive aspect: An uncontrollable great passion which might be a nuisance, as it sometimes lacks thought or control. Jealousy, possessiveness, absolute need of the other's presence 24 hours out of 24 can be issues. However, when trust is in place, they both will appreciate that their relationship is growth-oriented and far from a lifeless routine. Their feelings for each other evolve over time, and they learn from each other on an emotional level at every twist and turn. This fact is a treasure. The love they share is transforming in nature, so that they both feel renewed - almost like they are "new" people - through the relationship.

-52 Chelsea Opposition Jp Saturn - Pluto

Challenging aspect: The relationship can be difficult or destructive at times. Avoid pushing one another.

51 Chelsea Trine Jp Venus - Pluto

Positive aspect: Great passionate affair, very intense and transforming. They feel that the relationship forces them to grow.

42 Chelsea Trine Jp Mars - Saturn

Positive aspect: A life together with few problems. Love tends to develop into friendship. In a broad sense, they understand each other and go well together. Their relationship can be a little routine at times, and there may be some self-consciousness with each other.

This is one indication that they will be faithful to one another.
